LPR appoints Steve Belot as Country Manager FRANCE

European pallet pooling specialist, LPR-La Palette Rouge, announces the appointment of Steve Belot as its Country Manager France, as of October 1st, 2023.

Steve has an extensive experience in business development and supply chain management, having occupied several leadership positions within Yusen Logistics, Geodis, GXO and Kuhne & Nagel.

He was most recently Partner at Forizons, a consulting firm specialized in Supply Chain strategies.

As a true expert of Supply Chain, Steve has a comprehensive understanding of the French and International markets and its constraints and as such, will take over and consolidate the important link already established with the portfolio of customers and partners on the French market.

"Continuing to expand our global reach, bringing the Red Experience to more companies, while unwavering in our dedication to quality and service. Supporting our clients to reduce their carbon footprint and advance towards a circular economy remains at our core", says Steve Belot.

Jean-Luc Guénard, Managing Director of LPR, adds: "I trust that Steve brings the drive and expertise to sustain our commitment to infusing environmental aspects into our clients' supply chains. He will help drive the commercial development and operational excellence of the business. Steve is enthusiastic, about the challenge of establishing new business for LPR and an "hassle-free supply chain" to our partners. His experience in FMCG, Retail, and Supply Chain management aligns with our goal of enhancing supply chain efficiency, reducing carbon footprint, and meeting sustainability objectives by creating shared value. Collaboratively with our clients and partners, we aim to optimize use of resources, reduce waste and promote pallet reuse and recycling".

About LPR-La Palette Rouge
